Chartworth Advises Auditory Response Systems in Strategic Sale VRI, Inc.

Portsmouth, NH – January 23, 2013 – Chartworth is pleased to announce that Auditory Response Systems (ARS) of Dover, New Hampshire has been acquired by VRI, Inc. (VRI) of Franklin, Ohio. Chartworth acted as financial advisors to ARS and its shareholders. “This is a strategic business combination. ARS’ services are very complementary to VRI’s national services,” said Vlad Harris, Principal of Chartworth. Terms of the transaction are not disclosed.

About Auditory Response Systems, Inc.

ARS provides Telephone Devices for the Deaf and Text Telephony relay services to Housing Authorities, Section 8 Housing and privately owned companies throughout the USA. By having the relay service, housing providers comply with federal regulations regarding equal accessibility for hearing impaired, speech impaired and deaf persons. ARS is located in Dover, New Hampshire.
